Mapai for Tax, C-o-L Changes

FEBRUARY has passed, and the government has not kept its promise that next year's budget would be tabled this month. It is depressing to think that the Khemsa may now have to race through the Budget Assembly without being able to scrutinize them properly. It is therefore all the more important that Mr. Naphais, who deputizes for the Minister of Finance, has promised to introduce some reforms in handling the budget. Nevertheless March has only four weeks, and time is running out for the budget which begins on April 1.
